

Mary Rearick honored by Baltimore Material Industry

Mary Rearick

Mary K. Rearick, President of J.H. Rearick and Son, Inc., Dillsburg, was honored at the 98th Annual Meeting of Eastern Building Material Dealers Association where she retired as a member of the Board of Directors.

Based in Media, Pa. Eastern Building Material Dealers Association represents 771 retail and wholesale building material suppliers in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Washington, D.C. Through its affiliate organization, National Lumber and Building Material Dealers Association, 12,000 firms are represented nationally. Attending the 98th Annual Meeting and Exposition in Baltimore was more than 3,500 building material suppliers and their representatives. Association spokesman, David B. Kreidler, noted that this meeting was the most successful in the history of the Association since it was founded in 1892. Among the keynote speakers and entertainers were Bill Lee, William Sharp, Oliver North, Marie Osmond and Football Hall of Famer Artie Donovan.

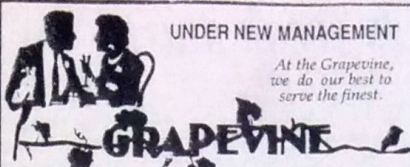

J.H. Rearick and Son offers a wide variety of lumber and building materials to consumer and contractor customers in the Dillsburg area.

During her tenure, Mrs. Rearick served on a variety of Committees. She currently is a member of GFWC Women's Club of Dillsburg, which she previously served as Secretary. Mrs. Rearick is also a member of the Harrisburg Civic Opera Association, where she previously served as Secretary and the Harrisburg Foreign Policy Association, where she previously served on the Board. She is also a member of the Northern York County Historical Society and presently serves as Judge of Elections for Dillsburg Borough. Married to John H. Rearick, Jr., she is a member of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, where she previously served on the Church Council, taught Sunday School and was a member of the Church Choir. The Rearicks are parents of three grown children. Mrs. Rearick enjoys cooking, gardening, the opera and the symphony orchestra.

Organized in 1892, Eastern Building Material Dealers Association is one of the oldest, continuously active trade association in the country.
